❖CALL TO WORSHIP-from Psalm 148

One: Hallelujah! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise the LORD in the heights.

Many: Praise the LORD, sun and moon; praise the LORD, all you shining stars.

One: Let them praise the name of the LORD, who commanded, and they were created.

Many: For the name of the LORD only is exalted, and the splendor of the LORD is over earth and heaven.

All: The LORD has raised up strength for the chosen people and praise for all loyal servants, the children of Israel, a people who are near to the LORD. Hallelujah!

GREETING

The Rev. Raymond Bonwell

PRAYER OF CONFESSION- (UNISON)

God of grace and truth,
in Jesus Christ you came among us
as light shining in darkness.

We confess that we have not welcomed the light,
or trusted good news to be good.

We have closed our eyes to glory in our midst, expecting little, and hoping for less.

Forgive our doubt, and renew our hope,
so that we may receive the fullness of your grace,
and live in the truth of Christ the Lord.

❖AFFIRMATION OF FAITH-(*The Confession of 1967; PART II - THE MINISTRY OF RECONCILIATION; Section A. The Mission of the Church, Part
2. Forms and Orders*)

The church disperses to serve God wherever its members are, at work or play, in private or in the life of society. Their prayer and Bible study are part of the church’s worship and theological reflection. Their witness is the church’s evangelism. Their daily action in the world is the church in mission to the world. The quality of their relation with other persons is the measure of the church’s fidelity.

INTERCESSION FOR HEALING

LAYING ON OF HANDS AND ANOINTING WITH OIL

[Those present are welcome to come forward to be anointed with oil; an offer will also be made to be anointed in your pew. This practice, informed by Scripture, is another external sign of the internal promise that God has made to us through Jesus Christ and by the Holy Spirit.]

The cover artwork is titled The twelve-year-old child Jesus in the temple, a Russian icon dating back to the 15th and 16th centuries. In Orthodox Christianity, icons are rich in history and symbolism; in Russian churches, the nave is separated from the sanctuary by a wall of icons. Their style was strictly maintained by the Church, led from Constantinople, and icon painting was a conservative, humble art—so much so that it was not even necessary for artists to sign their names, since icons were meant to glorify God and not the individual.

Coffee Hour Hosts are needed for 2019. Let's keep this beloved ministry going for 2019. Signups for coffee hour are available on the OPC web site and in the church kitchen (on the microwave). For more information, please contact Raelyn Harman at 610-331-8972 or Artia Benjamin. Thank you!

PNC Committee Process Update: The Overbrook Pastoral Nominating Committee (PNC) has continued its work. The Session approved a request to make our finalized MIF available to anyone who is interested in reading it. The MIF is available on the Overbrook website. This form describes Overbrook and our vision as we search for a new minister. A few printed copies will also be in the office. Second round interviews have been conducted and the PNC has set up appointments for neutral pulpits. Please pray for us as we continue our charge of evaluating and proposing a pastoral candidate who we believe will faithfully serve the needs of our church family.

HUFF-PAUL, Linda

Welcome, new member Linda Huff-Paul! Linda arrived at Overbrook Presbyterian in March 2017, after exploring a number of other churches in the area. Attracted to the spirit, warmth, and diversity of the congregation, Linda is happy to now be an “official” member of the OPC community. She serves on the Mission & Outreach Committee, as part of her passion for community service. Her involvement with a number of local community theaters inspired her to become a regular staffer for Narberth Community Theater's Refreshment Concession at OPC. Linda is a full-time editor in the financial services industry, a freelance writing coach, and an occasional English professor. She lives in Rosemont with her husband, Kirk, and their cat, Moon.

AN INVITATION TO CONVERSATION:

Below is a letter of invitation from Howard Friend, who has been hired as a consultant by OPC. Howard is a Presbyterian minister, congregational consultant, spiritual mentor and preacher. He was a called pastor for thirty years and an interim pastor for five.

Dear Overbrook Church,

My name is Howard Friend. I am a congregational consultant, and the church has hired me to accompany you through this time of transition. I'd love to meet with you.

This has been quite a year and a half for your church. Maybe longer. Times of smooth sailing and times of turbulent waters. Transitions are never easy. Church leaders have invited me to invite you to sign up for forty-five-minute conversations: your thoughts and feelings, your ideas and suggestions, what's being easy and what's being difficult. I am a good listener. What we talk about will be confidential. You can come alone or with up to three others.

I will take notes during our conversations, gathering and then summarizing what you share, then preparing a report for the church's leadership. Copies of that report will be available upon request.

I plan to be here for the first of these conversations Thursday, Jan. 3, 2019, from 2 to 9 p.m.. for on-the-hour 45-minute conversations. There will be a sign-up sheet at Coffee Hour, or you can call the church office to reserve a time. You may also call me at 484-883-2854 or email me at friendhoward148@gmail.com if you have any questions or want to speak with me directly.

I am looking forward to meeting you.

Blessings, Howard Friend
