❖CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Blessed are those who trust – in God.

People: We come in trust, to be grounded in God’s love.

Leader: Blessed are those who hope – in God.

People: We come in hope, trusting in the One who gives us life.

Leader: Blessed are those who delight – in God’s word.

ALL: We come to hear God’s Word, and to be healed of our brokenness.

GREETING

Raelyn Harman

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

We confess what we are afraid to confront; the seductions of the world nibble away at our hearts. We have more and more to pick from at the supermarket, and so we forget those whose only choice is hunger. We are so consumed with saving enough for the future, we ignore those who have so little today.

Forgive us, God, for thinking we are the center of your world. Pour your living water into us, so we might send down roots into your heart, and so become those people who are blessings to others, as we have received new life from Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

deed. We proclaim the new heaven and the new earth, in which righteousness dwells. As the church, we proclaim that God's life-giving Word and Spirit has conquered sin and death.

God conquers irreconciliation, hatred and bitterness. As the church, God's life-giving Word and Spirit enable us to live in a new obedience, God opens new possibilities of life for society and the world. We declare ourselves ready to venture out on the road of obedience and reconciliation—servants of the God who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people. (Barbara Hedges-Goettl. The cover artwork is a scene from La Vie de Jesus Mafa (“The Life of Jesus Mafa”), a project undertaken in the 1970s by French Catholic missionary François Vidil to help teach the gospel in Northern Cameroon. Just as the portrayals of Jesus in European cathedrals place him and his life in the context of medieval European society, Jesus Mafa depicts Jesus as an African man and creates religious art that belongs distinctly to Africa. This particular scene depicts the Sermon on the Mount, which appears in today’s reading from the Gospel of Luke.

☞ Looking Ahead: Christian Education (Ages 3-103) ☞

Wednesday, February 20- Adult Bible Study. Bible Study will be at 10:00 a.m.
All are welcome!

Sunday February 24

Christian Education (Ages 3-103), 9:15 a.m. – Adults are welcome to learn about “The Lord’s Prayer.” Elizabeth Cosgriff will be the leader. Children and Youth will meet in Fellowship Hall starting at 9:15 a.m. and then will go to their respective classrooms to begin Sunday School at 9:30 a.m.

☞ Looking Ahead: OPC Happenings ☞

Sunday, February 24

◆We will welcome the Rev. Adam Hearlson. Rev. Hearlson, has been chosen as the candidate for Designated Pastor and he will be preaching next Sunday. Immediately, following worship there will be our Annual Congregational Meeting at which time all present OPC members will have the opportunity to vote on whether to accept Rev. Hearlson as our next pastor.

◆OPC Youth: Creating Art! Let’s channel our inner Andy Warhol or Picasso and create something wonderful for the Youth Room from 3:00 PM-6:00 PM. We’ll be working under the guidance of special guest artists. Dinner will be provided; friends are welcome....as are parents/volunteers. RSVP to Sharon Parker by Friday, 2/22/19.

Saturday, March 23

Save the date! The OPC Women’s Retreat will be held on March 23 at the IHM Conference Center, and we have a leader! The Rev. Laura Colee, from Broad Street Ministry, has accepted the invitation to lead us in spiritual study and discussion. The event is all day, breakfast and lunch are provided. Tickets are $40, and will go on sale soon.

☞ General Announcements ☞

Program Postponement: The OPC Youth Ice skating trip, scheduled for today has been cancelled due to light registration...but don’t put away your skates just yet! We hope to reschedule the trip in the near future. Please watch for the new date!

OPC Security Improvements: If you have not done so, please contact the office to exchange your current front door key for a new front door key. At that time, security system orientation will be provided for those volunteers needing access to the building outside of regular office and building operating hours.

PNC Committee Process Update:

The Pastoral Nominating Committee (PNC) joyfully announces that we have chosen a candidate for our Designated Pastor position, the Rev. Dr. Adam Hearlson. On Sunday February 24, 2019, the Reverend will preach at OPC. After worship that same day, there will be a Congregational Meeting in which all present OPC members will vote on whether to accept this candidate as our new pastor. Please plan on attending. Church members must be present to vote. The PNC thanks the congregation for your prayers and words of support. During this journey, we have attempted to faithfully and diligently keep the congregation's stated hopes for our church's present and future in mind.

Yours in Christ,

The Pastoral Nominating Committee

Co-chairs: Andrea Gosfield, Robert Harden Jr., Margene Biedermann, Cheryl Davis, Jason Duckworth, Suchita Fiorillo, Joe Piatt, Aimerie Scherluebbe, and Jill Van Rawley

Coffee Hour

We would like to thank Peggy Kaercher and Pat Ogundele, who graciously volunteered to be the contact people for coffee hour. We are still in need of hosts for the upcoming months. Let's keep this beloved ministry going for 2019. Signups for coffee hour are available on the OPC web site and in the church kitchen (on the door). For more information, please contact Peggy Kaercher at 610-642-2906 or Pat Ogundele at 610-668-1309. Thank you!

Narberth Community Theater's production of West Side Story is set to begin March 1 and this play is sure to entice you to be entertained with this familiar and popular modern day Romeo and Juliet story. NCT has allocated a certain amount of tickets for each play for OPC to sell, and the revenues from those tickets are completely donated to OPC. See Jeff Bowker for these tickets. We are also in need of volunteers to help staff the concession stand. Revenues from 'THEATRE REFRESHMENT STAND' are also slotted to support OPC's general budget. Hope you will be able to help. Just give us a call or look for your invitation to serve via Genius Signup. Contact Person: Trudy Sheau, 215 878 4872
